

Banjaras gets registered

Banjaras, the fashion house received its Certificate of Registration of Trademark from the Government of India. The store is a culmination of 18 years of dedicated patience in building a sustainable and constantly evolving bridge between extreme rural skills and urban fashion trends. Banjaras has natural fabrics in cotton, silks, jute and blends in prints and weaves from across ten Indian states. It is an all women team. The store also has an in-house workshop to make 'made-to-measure' ensembles to cater to every urban wardrobe need.

