

A ramp walk for a noble cause

EVENT

Fabric of Goodness, 'A Walk for a Cause' – an initiative by Sare Jahan Se Acha Foundation held a fashion show at a city club recently. Walking the ramp were 26 women professionals who kept aside their work for a day and walked for a cause to support this NGO amongst a 500 plus audience. Adorning them with beautiful customised designer clothes, was the mother daughter duo of Neeta and Nidhi Deshpande of Banjaras.

A special walk of honour was held with the special guest for the evening Padma Vibhushan Dr K. H Sancheti and his son and daughter- Dr Parag Sancheti and Manisha Sanghvi who graced this occasion. Major General Neeraj Bali –GOC Sub Area, was also present on this occasion and addressed the audience gathering.

L to R: Dr Parag Sancheti, Manisha Sanghvi and Dr K.H Sancheti

The Founder Director of this foundation Raja Narsinha, aptly described the goals of his foundation. Working with dementia patients to launching a 'Spit Free India Campaign' and associating with the 'Paraplegic Home' in Pune are some of their initiatives.