

OPEN HOUSE

FABRIC OF GOODNESS!

A Walk for a Cause, an initiative by Sare Jahan Se Acha Foundation held a fashion show at a city club recently. Walking the ramp were 26 women professionals who kept aside their work for a day and walked for a cause to support this NGO amongst a 500 plus audience.

Adorning them with beautiful customised designer wear was the mother daughter duo of Neeta and Nidhi Deshpande of Banjaras.

A special Walk of Honour was held with the special guest for the evening — Padma Vibhushan Dr K H Sancheti and his son and daughter — Parag Sancheti and Manisha Sanghvi. Maj General Neeraj Bali, GOC Sub Area, was also present on this occasion and addressed the august gathering.

IN THE CITY

Raja Narsinha, Founder Director of Sare Jahan Se Acha aptly describes the goal of his foundation as spreading goodness and making a difference in society. Working with dementia patients, launching a Spit Free India campaign, associating with the Paraplegic Home in Pune, are some of the initiatives of Sare Jahan Se Acha.

(left to right) Dr Parag Sancheti, Manisha Sanghvi and Dr KH Sancheti

(left to right) Neeta Deshpande, Sonya Rau and Nidhi Deshpande